

Venture Catalyst Challenge 2020 Terms & Conditions

Terms & Conditions

- Terms and Conditions are signed by one team member on behalf of the entire team. The entire team is bound by the signed Terms & Conditions.
- All registered undergraduate and postgraduate (full-time or part-time) Imperial College London students, and alumni within three years of graduation (graduated no earlier than 2017) are eligible to apply to the Programme & enter the prize.
- Undergraduate and Masters students must be registered students throughout the duration of the Programme.
- PhD students must be registered as Imperial College students at the point of the application deadline on the 19th January 2020.
- Applicants can apply as single applicants or as leaders of a team.
- At all stages of the Programme, the judging panel's decision is final, and no correspondence will be entered into.
- By taking part in the Programme you are agreeing that you will participate in any associated media activities and that you are providing consent and authorization for the use of any marketing materials obtained during the duration of the Programme.
- Imperial College London reserves the right to publish the names and photographs of the Programme participants, and prize winners may be required to participate in post-Programme appearances and publicity (including press releases and speaking at further events).
- By submitting an application, applicants agree to be bound by the Programme terms and conditions and to participate in marketing and promotional activities relating to the Venture Catalyst Challenge.
- When requested, participants will provide appropriate information about their project for publicity purposes, and bear the responsibility of ensuring their Intellectual Property is protected in these instances.
- By entering the Programme, applicants are indicating their agreement to be bound by these terms and conditions.
- Previous applicants: students who have applied to a previous year of the Venture Catalyst Challenge but were not accepted onto the Programme are permitted to apply again with an improved idea. However, students who were previously accepted and participated in the Programme are only eligible to participate again if they are submitting a different project.
- Finalists must be present in person to pitch their ideas in the Venture Catalyst Challenge Track Heats on the 10th and 11th of March 2020 (participants will only be pitching on one of these dates, track final dates remain to be confirmed), as well as the Venture Catalyst Challenge Grand Final on Wednesday 18th March 2020.
- Confidentiality
 - Working with Business Coaches & Mentors

In the event that you disclose confidential information to external parties, such as mentors and coaches, it is important that your confidential information is protected. This protection can be captured in the agreements that College signs with these third parties on the basis that you provide your express consent solely for this purpose. Please sign at the bottom of this document if you consent to College signing on your behalf solely for confidentiality obligations owed to you by third parties, such as mentors or coaches.

Please be aware that this does not mean that College will defend or fund any claims that you may bring for alleged breaches of confidentiality by any third party.

- Working with External Advisers

Through the Venture Catalyst Challenge 2020 we will also introduce you to External Advisers for advice and signposting information. These are volunteer roles which are not bound by any agreements with the university to protect confidential information. By signing at the bottom of this document you are agreeing that you take sole responsibility for protecting your confidential information in meeting with these individuals.

- Maintaining Confidentiality

As a participant of the Venture Catalyst Challenge 2020, I agree to maintain the confidentiality of other participants' information. Confidential information includes any information that is imparted by a participant that is:

- a) provided in documentary/ model or any other tangible form, including any copies;
- b) provided in oral form and any note recording the disclosure; and
- c) marked or otherwise designated to show expressly or by necessary implication that it is imparted in confidence.
